TRAVEL ADVISORY

SECURITY

Bucaramanga is ranked as one of the safest cities in Colombia; it is strategically located in the northeast of the country, so access to cities such as Medellin, Barranquilla, Cartagena or Bogota is easy both by land and air.

Bucaramanga is the capital of the department of Santander, a region with excellent access roads to municipalities and natural parks where you can explore their culture, gastronomy and sports attractions that will turn your visit into a wonderful experience.

The city has 24-hour police surveillance, thanks to the Immediate Attention Centers that are distributed in each sector of the city, through which officers ensure the safety and healthy coexistence of all citizens.

The city's nightlife activity is high, especially in the bar and restaurant sectors, which offer great variety and styles to visitors.

Undoubtedly, Bucaramanga is the ideal city to live a long-stay experience in Colombia.
